Spotlight: Our Annual Party

For those coming to our over-subscribed annual party in Toronto this week, we have amazing musical entertainment, cigars, some flappers and a guest who has threatened to wear a fedora. Opus Bistro provides a beautiful ambience, some of the best food in the city, and Portuguese wine that will impress all. Needless to say, we are excited to see you!

GTA Food Processor Seeks President

We are seeking a candidate who is a strong leader, hands-on, results driven and operationally focused to become President of a mid-market, family owned, food processing business located in the Greater Toronto Area.

Venture Capital Valuation

Venture Capital investing is a portfolio game – you don't just make one good deal. Rather, VC firms invest in several companies to spread out the risk. They know that eight or nine out of 10 investments will fail or bump along and return no real gain, while one or two might be a success.
